

Roman Catholic Church Bashing

Jesus warned us that just as He was badly treated, misunderstood, misrepresented, and persecuted; so too would his disciples be treated in the same way. The Roman Catholic Church is the oldest and biggest Christian Church, which makes her an easy target for those who out of ignorance easily fall into the trap of believing the propaganda out there against her.

It is almost predictable – since evangelical churches often make effective use of the various means of social communication and publication – that some are inclined to fall for the trap of blaming the big bad RC Church. She's the oldest and largest so of course it's easy to find fault with her members who are after all still human and sinful, even though we have been saved by the same Lord.

It is a manifestation of naïve youthfulness and ignorance to uncritically believe untruths about the biggest Christian Church and to seek to enhance oneself by putting Rome and the Vatican down. They don't realize they are making the same mistake Saul made when he persecuted the early Christian Church and found that he was not merely seeking out and jailing, even killing, what he thought were heretical Jews, but that he was actually persecuting Jesus himself, and that He is the same God he thought he was worshipping in the Temple.

In the same way that it's almost impossible to undo the damage done by that German playwright who wrote a play inventing falsehoods about Pope Pius XII around 1960, so too it's almost impossible to stop the Roman Catholic Church bashing that goes on in some evangelical and other churches of the reform.

Until that play that fictitiously rewrote history about Pope Pius XII, the world knew Pius XII had given so much help to Jews and had indeed spoken out against Hitler. But the play painted the opposite picture and since then so many morons have passed on these lies as though they were true that today most people just pass on the gossip again without bothering to check the facts because it suits them to beat up on the RC Church.

It's like all the email and internet hoaxes that get passed on as true and credible warnings just because they appear plausible, but are simply not true and can be easily shown to be untrue by simply checking the sources for the true facts.

Be very careful about the sea of books and tapes out there that have 85% truth and 15% garbage and lies. Remember what Jesus said about himself, that He is the way, the truth and the life, and that it is only the truth that can set us free.
