

Meditation – For Father’s Day!

When I was 4 years old...
My dad could do anything.

When I was 5 years old...
My dad knew a whole lot.

When I was 6 years old...
My dad was smarter than your dad.

When I was 8 years old...
My dad didn’t know exactly everything.

When I was 10 years old...
I thought, when my dad grew up, in the “olden days”, things were sure different.

When I was 12 years old...
Dad didn’t know anything about what I was living. He was too old to remember his childhood... and, besides, things were different then!

When I was 14 years old...
I didn’t pay any attention to my dad. He was way too old-fashioned.

When I was 21 years old...
Dad?... Whoa! He was hopelessly out of date!

When I was 25 years old...
Dad knew about things... but then, he should - because he’d been around for so long.

When I was 30 years old...
I thought, maybe we should ask Dad what he thought. After all, he did have a lot of experience.

When I was 35 years old...
I was not going to do a single important thing until I spoke to Dad.

When I was 40 years old...
I wondered how Dad would handle it. He was so wise.

When I was 50 years old...
I thought, "I’d give anything if Dad were here now so I could talk this over with him. Too bad I didn’t appreciate how smart he was. I could have learned a lot more from him."

We thank You and Praise You, Lord, for our Fathers, Amen!
